

Awards

Athens Economic Development Corporation has received state and international recognition through innovative solutions, resulting in business growth and development for the Athens community. Check out AEDC's awards listed below:

2019 Award of Excellence for Outstanding Single Community with a population under 20,000

by Business Retention & Expansion International

Project: Biomerics FMI

2018 Awarded Economic Excellence

by Texas Economic Development Council

2018 Award of Excellence for Outstanding Single Community with a population under 20,000

by Business Retention & Expansion International

Project: Freeport Tax Exemption

2018 BREI Impact Award

by Business Retention & Expansion International

Project: Freeport Tax Exemption

2018 Merit Recognition Award for Workforce Excellence (population less than 15,000)

by Texas Economic Development Council

Project: Workforce Development

2017 Awarded Economic Excellence

by Texas Economic Development Council

2017 Community Economic Development Award (population 5,001 to 15,000)

by Southern Economic Development Council

2016 Awarded Economic Excellence

by Texas Economic Development Council

2016 Recipient of the Community Economic Development Award (population 5,001 to 15,000)

by Texas Economic Development Council

2015 Awarded Economic Excellence

by Texas Economic Development Council

2013 IEDC Gold Award

by International Economic Development Council